AWARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa, by Order dated 07-01-2009, bearing No. 28/48/2006-LAB/36, referred the following dispute for its adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa. The Government of Goa, vide it's another order dated 09-02-2016 re-transferred the said dispute for its adjudication to this Labour Court-II, Panaji, Goa.

"(1) Whether the action of M/s Kadamba Transport Corporation Limited in not regularizing the services of Shri Santosh Haldankar, Conductor, Badge No. 11459, with effect from 16-12-2004, is legal and justified?

(2) If not, what relief, the Workman is entitled to?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/07/09 and registered A/D notice was issued to the Parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the Parties put in their appearance. The Kadamba Kamgar Union (for short 'Union'), filed its Statement of Claim on 02-04-2009 at Exb-4. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Union are that the Workman is a member of the said Union. The Union stated that it is espousing the cause of the workmen in respect of the regularisation of services. The Union stated that the Workman was appointed by the Employer/Party II (for short "the Employer") on compassionate ground. The Union stated that they resolved to take the issue of regularization of services of the Workman and further authorized its President to sign, appear and depose on its behalf before this Hon'ble Court.

3. The Union stated that the Workman had applied for the post of 'Conductor' under the compassionate ground on account of death of his father late Shri Kashinath Haldankar. The Union stated that the said Kashinath Haldankar was working as a driver at Panaji depot of the Employer. The Union stated that the Workman was directed to comply with all the formalities for appointment as required under the compassionate grounds. The Union stated that after completing all the formalities as required, the Workman was appointed as 'conductor' on compassionate ground on contract basis, vide order dated 16-12-2004. The Union stated that the appointment of the Workman was extended from time to time. The Union stated that the appointment of the Workman was for the permanent post, which he was entitled on account of death of his father. The Union stated that the workman continued to discharge his services as conductor on contract basis till date, thereby depriving him the monetary benefits which would have been accrued, if the services were confirmed under the compassionate scheme. The Union submitted that appointment on compassionate ground is given only to meet immediate hardship which is faced by the family by reason of death of bread earner. However, the Workman is made to undergo more hardship by making him to work on permanent post with duties discharged that of regular workman. The Union stated that the Workman is not conferred with the status of a regular workman and has not been paid the salary of the regular workman despite discharging the duties as the regular workman.

4. The Union submitted that the Workman is entitled for regularization in services from the date of his appointment. The Union submitted that the appointment of the Workman was on permanent post and the duties discharged by him was of regular workman, thereby conferring the status of regular workman. The Union submitted that the Workman had filed an application for the post of conductor on compassionate ground on account of the death of his father, who was employed with the Employer Corporation. The Union submitted that their case is gross case wherein the workmen have been compelled to seek sanctuary in portal of the Hon'ble Tribunal. The Union submitted that the Workman is grossly discriminated against the whims and caprices of unmoving bureaucracy. The Union, therefore prayed for passing of an award holding that the workman be regularised in services w.e.f. 16-12-2004 i.e. from the date of his appointment on compassionate ground.

5. During the course of hearing, the Workman filed an application for impleading himself as an intervening party to the present dispute. The Workman was allowed as an intervening party after hearing both the parties, vide order dated 08-07-2019. The Workman filed his claim statement on 05-08-2019 at Exb. 18. The Workman stated that he is employed with the Employer as 'conductor' w.e.f. 17-12-2004 on contract basis. He stated that the Union has raised an 'industrial dispute' in the matter of regularization of his services before the Conciliation Authority, which ended in failure. He stated that the Appropriate Government referred the said dispute for adjudication before this Labour Court. He stated that during the pendency of the said dispute, the Employer regularized his services by an order dated 06-05-2011. He stated that as his claim for regularization has been settled by the Employer, he requested the Union not to proceed with the present reference. He stated that the Union, however, showed its inability to consider the said request and therefore he resigned from the membership of the Union, vide letter dated 06-02-2019 under intimation to this Hon'ble Labour Court. He submitted that since the Employer has resolved the dispute by considering his regularization, he does not wish to continue with the present reference. The Workman therefore prayed that the present reference pending before this Labour Court be disposed off as settled.

6. The Employer did not controvert the case as pleaded by the Workman, but resisted the claim of the Union by filing its written statement on 03-09-2009 at Exb. 5. The Employer, as and by way of its preliminary objections, submitted that neither the Party I is a 'workman' as defined under Section 2 (s) of the I. D. Act, 1947 nor the present dispute is an 'industrial dispute' within the meaning of Section 2 (k) of the I.D. Act, 1947 and is not maintainable and deserves to be dismissed in limine. The Employer submitted that the Workman is not the member of Kadamba Kamgar Union and the said Union is not entitled to espouse the cause of the Workman, that the Union has suppressed the material facts from this Hon'ble Tribunal, that the Union has approached the Tribunal with false stories with distorted statements, that the Workman is a contract employee and hence, not entitled to raise any dispute under the Industrial Disputes Act and the Union has chosen wrong forum.

7. Without prejudice to its aforesaid submissions, the Employer stated that the Workman was appointed as a 'conductor' on contract basis, vide order dated 16-12-2004 on fixed monthly remuneration of Rs. 3000/-. The Employer stated that, the employment of the Workman is liable to be terminated with one month notice. The Employer stated that the Workman is not even entitled to claim any continuity/extension/regular employment with them as per the terms of contract. The Employer stated that the Workman has in categorical terms accepted the terms and conditions of the contract employment. The Employer submitted that the Workman is therefore estopped from seeking regularization of service and/or filing the present reference. The Employer submitted that the Workman is therefore not entitled to any relief and the reference is itself bad. The Employer stated that the Workman, in case seek such parity considering the terms of contract signed and accepted unconditionally. The Employer denied the overall case as pleaded by the Union and prayed for disallowing the claim of the Union.

8. An opportunity was given to the Union to file its Re-joinder. However, Ld. Adv. A. Kundaikar, appearing for the Union submitted that the Party I do not wish to me any Re-joinder.

9. Based on the pleadings filed by the parties' hereinabove, the Hon'ble Presiding Officer, Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court framed the following issues on 13-10-2010 at Exb. 6.

1. Whether the Party I proves that he is entitled for regularization in service with all benefits?
2. Whether the Party II proves that the Party I is not a 'workman' under Sec. 2 (s) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

3. Whether the Party II proves that there is no 'industrial dispute' under Sec. 2 (k) of the Industrial Disputes Act?

4. Whether the Union has no authority to espouse the cause of the Party I?

5. What Order? What Award?

10. My findings to the aforesaid issues are as under:

- (a) Issue No. 1 : In the negative.
- (b) Issue No. 2 : In the negative.
- (c) Issue No. 3 : In the negative.
- (d) Issue No. 4 : In the negative.
- (e) Issue No. 5 : As per final order.

REASONS

Ld. Adv. Shri A. Kundaikar, appearing for the Party I argued the matter orally. Ld. Adv. Shri P. Mirjankar h/f Adv. A. Palekar filed synopsis of written arguments.

I have carefully perused the entire records of the present case including synopsis of written arguments filed by the Employer. I have carefully considered the oral as well as written submissions made by the parties respectively.

11. Issue No. 1:

The Union raised the present dispute on behalf of the Workman pertaining to his regularization of service before the Conciliation Officer, which ended in failure. The Workman, in his claim statement, filed in the present proceedings at Exb. 18 stated that the Employer has regularized his services, by an order dated 06-05-2011 and he requested the Union not to proceed with the present reference. Further, the Workman, in his cross-examination, admitted that he has no claim against the Employer Corporation. The aforesaid facts on record clearly proves that services of the Workman have been regularised by the Employer with effect from 06-05-2011 and that he has no claim against the Employer.

12. Ld. Adv. Shri A. Kundaikar, appearing for the Union, relied upon an extract of a scheme for compassionate appointment issued under Central Civil Service Regulation and submitted that the scheme for compassionate appointment shall be made on regular basis. He therefore submitted that the Workman is entitled for regularization in service of the Employer from the date of his joining i.e. with effect from 16-12-2004. However, neither the Union, nor the Workman has produced on record any evidence either oral or documentary to show that the said scheme for compassionate appointment as applicable to the Government servant has been adopted by the Employer Corporation. Hence, I do not find any merits in the aforesaid submissions of Ld. Adv. Shri A. Kundaikar, appearing for the Union. Hence, it is held that the Union failed to prove that the Workman is entitled for regularization of service with all the benefits w.e.f. 16-12-2004. The issue No.1 is therefore answered in the negative.

13. Issue No. 2, 3 and 4:

While deciding the issue No. 1 hereinabove, I have discussed and come to the conclusion that Union failed to prove that the Workman is entitled for regularization of service with all the benefits w.e.f. 16-12-2004.

The Employer, in its written statement, filed in the present proceedings by way of preliminary objections pleaded that neither the Party I is a 'workman' as defined u/s 2 (s) of the I.D. Act nor the present dispute is an 'industrial dispute' within the meaning of Section 2 (k) of the I.D. Act and that the Union is not entitled to espouse the cause of the Party I and as such the reference is not maintainable. The Hon'ble Presiding Officer, Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court framed the issue No. 2 and 3 as stated above by putting burden on the Employer and the issue No. 4 pertaining to the authority of the Union to espouse the cause of the Party I on the Union. As the Employer did not lead any evidence to prove the issue No. 2 and 3, the Employer failed to prove that the Party I is not a 'workman' u/s 2 (s) of the I.D. Act and that there is no 'industrial dispute' u/s 2 (k) of the I.D. Act, 1947. The issue No. 2 and 3 therefore answered in the negative.

14. The burden to prove its authority to espouse regularization of services of the Workman is on the Union. The Union has however, failed to prove its authority to espouse the cause of regularization of services of the Workman by non-examining any of its witness. Consequently, there is no cogent evidence on record to prove that the Union has authority to espouse the cause of regularization of service of the Workman. Hence, it is held that the Union has failed to prove that it has authority to espouse the cause of regularization of services of the Workman. The issue No. 4 is therefore answered in the negative.

15. Issue No. 5:

While deciding the issue No. 1 hereinabove, I have discussed and come to the conclusion that the Union has failed to prove that the Workman is entitled for regularization in service with all benefits w.e.f. 16-12-2004, similarly, while deciding the issue No. 4 hereinabove, I have discussed and come to the conclusion that the Union has no authority to espouse the cause of regularization of services of the Workman. The Workman is therefore not entitled to any relief.

In view of above, I pass the following order

ORDER

1. It is held that the dispute as to "Whether the action of M/s Kadamba Transport Corporation Limited in not regularizing the services of Shri Santosh Haldankar, Conductor, Badge No. 11459, with effect from 16-12-2004, is legal and justified, does not survive.
2. The Workman, Shri Santosh Haldankar, is not entitled to any relief.
3. No order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.
